From the Principal

December 20, 2023

Dear Parents and Students at St. Michael School,

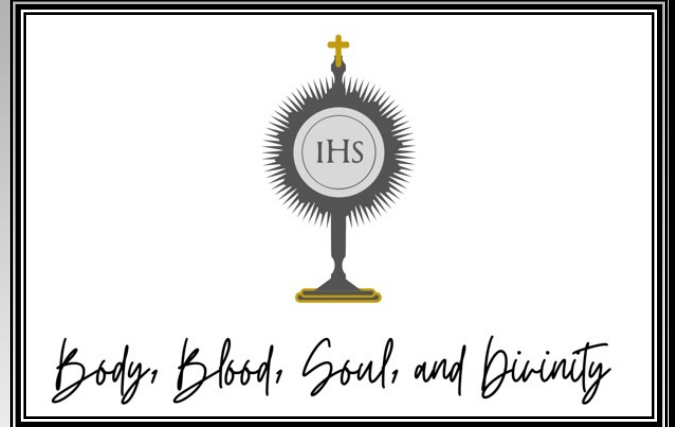

It is the most wonderful time of the year! As 2023 comes to an end, I want to express my sincere gratitude for the support of the many families at St. Michael School for a successful first semester. Through the fruits of the most Holy Spirit, our focus remains to fill the halls and classrooms of St. Michael School with genuine love and respect for the Lord and others, growth in wisdom, heartfelt gratitude, dedication to discipleship, and perseverance despite barriers and obstacles. We continue to be abundantly blessed at St. Michael School.

I look forward to seeing each of you when school resumes on January 4th. May the Lord abundantly bless you, your families, and the St. Michael community in the year to come.

Stay safe and stay warm.

+In Christ,

Ashley Rockey
St. Michael Principal

QUARTER 2

LIBRARY STATS

Here are the library numbers for second quarter. Realistic fiction, biographies and lives of the Saints were the hot ticket items.

- Total Books Circulated: 3,582
- Added to Collection: 58

SKILLS COVERED

- MAKING PREDICTIONS
- AUTHORS & SERIES
- NONFICTION TEXT FEATURES
- HOW TO USE THE ONLINE CATALOG

TOP CIRCULATED BOOKS

MAKERSPACE

NOVEMBER - GRATITUDE CARDS

To enter the holiday season with a heart of gratitude, not desire, we shared cards of thanks to veterans, family members, teachers, and classmates.

DECEMBER - PUZZLES

We solved a variety of puzzles from jigsaw to pattern blocks. We also celebrated our Virtue of the Month, Joy, by making a display of the things that bring us joy.

UPDATES

- Page One Book Club will be Wednesdays from 3:30-4:30 starting in January for 3rd - 8th graders. Registration forms can be picked up in the main office.
- Book Fair is scheduled for January 28 - February 2. More details to come!

Calling all parishioners! We want to light up your new year with Jesus!!! This January we have some incredible community building events to bring us all closer with the warmth of His light!
